Happy April & Happy Earth Day!

It seems that spring has finally sprung here in Minneapolis. I am happy to finally see some grass in my front yard, even though we did see some snow falling earlier this week!

April is also the month we celebrate Earth Day, on the 22nd. Besides supporting green businesses like Junk Mail Gems, there are many little things you can do in honor of earth day, and continue every day.

Here are just a few ideas that can also help save you time and money:

- Next time you buy light bulbs, purchase efficient compact fluorescent ones.
- Invest in some rechargeable batteries.
- Use a reusable wash cloth or sponge instead of paper towels when cleaning.
- Get yourself removed from junk mail lists (visit JunkMailGems.com to find out how)
- Sign up for direct deposit and electronic bill paying.

New Product!

I am happy to introduce the latest addition to the Junk Mail Gems product line...this cool new junk mail necklace! Each necklace is about 18" long on a hemp cord, with a lobster clasp and round junk mail pendant. And, like every Junk Mail Gems product, every one is unique and hand made! $20 at www.JunkMailGems.com
